JETS DIRECTORS

The New York Jets Directors have been the impetus for the remarkable transition of the troubled New York entry in the American Football League to one of the most exciting and successful franchises in pro football. The Directors and the man they hired, Weeb Ewbank, have brought New York fans a quality brand of football, and of course, the World Championship in 1968, an AFL title in 1968, and two AFL Eastern Division crowns (1968 & 1969).

The Directors have always been an aggressive group, acting quickly for the betterment of the club. In 1963 they moved immediately to retain the services of Ewbank, one of the most respected head coaches in the pro ranks. Most recently, in an innovative decision, the Board named Charley Winner to succeed the retiring Ewbank in 1974 and to join the staff immediately. "I believe in an orderly transition," remarked President Philip Iselin at the time. "I feel that by naming Charley to our staff now, he will gain a full year of learning in our organization."

Three members of the Jets original Board of Directors have been a guiding force in this development since they acquired the team in 1963 — President Philip H. Iselin, Townsend B. Martin, Chairman of the Board; and Leon Hess, Vice President and Treasurer. Mrs. Helen L. Springborn, daughter of the late president of the club, Donald Lillis, assumed the post of Vice President and Secretary in 1968 and has become one of the most respected women in professional sports.

The front office appointed by the Jets Directors is one of the most highly regarded in the National Football League. Both on and off the field, the club is talented and full of vitality.

The Board of Directors are dedicated to perfection. They have been rewarded in the past and continue to strive for nothing less in the future.

PHILIP H. ISELIN, President, is the president of the Korell Company and president and Chairman of the Board of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club. The popular Iselin has had an extensive background in racing and enjoys the unique distinction of heading two major sporting concerns. Mr. Iselin lives in Oceanport, N.J. and in 1969 was the recipient of an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters by Monmouth College (N.J.) for his contributions to the shore area.

TOWNSEND B. MARTIN, Chairman of the Board, is an internationally-known owner and breeder of thoroughbred race horses and a member of the Jockey Club. Mr. Martin is also engaged in the investment banking business with Bessemer Securities Corp. in New York City. An original backer of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club in 1946, he now serves on its Board of Directors.

LEON HESS, Vice President and Treasurer, is Chairman and Chief Executive Office of the Amerada Hess Corporation. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club, the American Broadcasting Corporation and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company.

MRS. HELEN L. SPRINGBORN, Vice President and Secretary, is the daughter of the late Donald C. Lillis, former President of the New York Jets. Mrs. Springborn is a vivacious and enthusiastic football fan who is in regular attendance at every Jet game and function. She resides in Greenwich, Conn.

WEEB EWBank HEAD COACH & GENERAL MANAGER

Weeb Ewbank, the architect of the New York Jets success story, enters his final season as a head coach in 1973. His 20th campaign as an NFL head coach will cap a career that has seen Ewbank win three World Championships, four division crowns, and build two teams into powerhouses.

The 66-year old Ewbank made his announcement that he would retire from coaching last Dec. 18, citing a need to spend more time with his family. In 1974 Ewbank will turn over the coaching reins to Charley Winner, who has been appointed as the successor.

As head coach and general manager, Ewbank guided the AFL Jets to the professional football championship of the world in 1968 and won NFL titles back-to-back in 1958 and 1959 as coach of the Baltimore Colts, the team the Jets defeated for the crown. His feat with the Jets made him the only coach in history to win world championships in both leagues. His 20 years of service rank second only to Paul Brown among active coaches.

Weeb began his career as an assistant at his alma mater, Miami University of Ohio, and spent 14 seasons there. In 1959 he was presented with an honorary Doctorate from Miami and in February of 1969 he was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame.

In 1943 he joined Paul Brown at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station as an assistant. At the end of the war, Weeb became back-field coach at Brown University and head basketball coach for the Bruins. After one season there he moved on to Washington University in St. Louis as head grid coach. In two seasons he brought the Maroons their finest record in 30 years, compiling a 14-4 record, including a 9-1 mark in 1948. While there, Weeb also acquired a son-in-law - Charley Winner, one of his players, married his daughter. Winner, formerly head coach of the St. Louis Cardinals, is now an assistant coach for the Jets.

In 1949, Ewbank entered the pros by rejoining Paul Brown and the Cleveland Browns, serving as line coach. During the next four years, the Browns dominated pro football, winning the All-America Conference title, then taking the NFL championship in 1950 and Eastern Division pennants in 1951-52-53.

Ewbank publicly exhibited his brilliant managerial talents when he moved to Baltimore in 1954. He took a team that was beset with disorganization and within six years produced two NFL championships. Among the many stars developed by Ewbank at Baltimore were Johnny Unitas, Alan Ameche, Raymond Berry, Lenny Moore, Gino Marchetti, Arthur Donovan, Bill Pellington, Jim Parker and Big Daddy Lipscomb.

In 1963 the New York Jets moved to get Ewbank to lead the struggling AFL franchise on the path to success. Moving carefully to reorganize the team, Ewbank led the Jets for four years before producing a winner for the first time in 1967. Then in 1968 the rebuilding plans came to fruition with the Super Bowl championship.

Through the years, players and assistant coaches who have been under Ewbank have gone on to greater assignments. Five of these associates have become head coaches in pro football. Don McCafferty, who coached with Ewbank, is presently coaching Detroit. Don Shula, who played under Ewbank at Baltimore, is the head man at Miami, and Chuck Knox, who was on Ewbank's first staff in New York, is the head coach of Los Angeles. Clive Rush, Weeb's aide at the Jets, was the head coach of the Boston Patriots.

John Sandusky was head at Baltimore last year.

Joe Thomas, another ex-Ewbank aide, is vice-president and general manager of Baltimore. Joe Spencer, Lou Rymkus, Art Spinney, Jack Patera, Carl Tasseff, Bobby Boyd, Raymond Berry, Bob Shaw, John Bridgers, Frank Lauterbur, Dick Wood, Billy Baird and Babe Parilli are others who have moved ahead after playing or coaching under Ewbank.

Since coming to New York, Ewbank has developed six all-pro (combined AFL-NFL) players -- Joe Namath, Gerry Philbin, George Sauer, Jim Turner, Matt Snell and Winston Hill. Don Maynard, Larry Grantham, Dainard Paulson, Dave Herman, Sherman Plunkett, Verlon Biggs and John Elliott are others who have received all-AFL honors under Ewbank. Hill, Elliott and Richard Caster have been members of the American Conference Pro Bowl Squad. A trio of these players -- Namath, Philbin, and Maynard -- were selected to the all-time all-AFL team.

As an undergraduate of Miami, Weeb was a quarterback, captain of the baseball team and a forward on the basketball team.

A native of Richmond, Ind., he married the former Lucy Massey, also of Richmond. They have three married daughters all with families.

THE 1972 JETS GAME BY GAME

NEW YORK 41, BUFFALO 24 — At War Memorial Stadium, SRO attendance, 46,206 mild and breezy. An explosive first half, triggered by the running of John Riggins and interceptions by Steve Tannen, Al Atkinson and Ralph Baker, powered the Jets past the Bills in the season opener. Riggins sprinted for 125 yards in the afternoon while his mate, Emerson Boozer, scored three touchdowns. The Jets scored first and less than 90 seconds later Chris Farasopoulos broke the game open with a 65-yard punt return for a touchdown, the first Jet TD with a punt since 1963.

HOUSTON 26, NEW YORK 20 — At The Astrodome, SRO attendance, 51,423. The Jets suffered their first setback of the season with a lackluster performance against Houston, 26-20. The offense mustered nearly 400 yards, but could convert on third down only 4 times as Dan Pastorini fired up the Oilers for their only triumph of the year. Pastorini, seemingly out of the game after knee damage in the first half, emerged to direct a ball-control second half for Houston. The Jets had two interceptions and two fumbles which led to three of Skip Butler's four second-half field goals. A last ditch attempt to win ended with a Joe Namath interception in the final two minutes.

MIAMI 27, NEW YORK 17 — At Shea Stadium, SRO attendance 63,841, clear and mild. Playing without Emerson Boozer, John Riggins and Ed Bell for most of the game, the Jets fell to undefeated Miami, 27-17. The backfield tandem of Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick tore through the Jets for 174 yards on the ground while Bob Griese pitched for 220 yards on 15 of 27. The Jets scored the first time they had the ball, Randy Rasmussen recovering Clifford McClain's fumble into the end zone, but after that Miami's defense clamped down.

NEW YORK 41, NEW ENGLAND 13 — At Schaefer Stadium, SRO attendance, 60,999, cool and windy. Joe Namath turned to his ground game and it paid off with a club record 333 yards as New York outclassed New England, 41-13 in Foxboro. John Riggins (168 yards) and Emerson Boozer (150 yards) became the first NFL backfield pair ever to hit 150 yards each in one game and Boozer notched his second three-TD afternoon of the year. Namath threw a record low 8 times and his team rushed a record high 54 times.

NEW YORK 24, BALTIMORE 20 — At Shea Stadium, SRO attendance, 62,948, cloudy and cool. An incredible 83-yard pass from Joe Namath to Ed Bell lifted the Jets past Baltimore, 24-20, in the final 63 seconds of play as the Jets dealt John Sandusky a defeat in his coaching debut with the Colts. On first down, Namath faded back at his own 17 yard line and fired the ball for Bell. It was deflected off Charlie Stukes into the hands of Bell who raced away from Stukes and Jerry Logan for the 83-yard score. Marty Domres, replacing John Unitas and making his first start as the Colt QB, brought Baltimore back to the 2 yard line as time expired. The Jets were inconsistent in moving the ball and had five turnovers before the Namath to Bell explosion.

Emerson Boozer paced the way, scoring three TDs and running for 91 yards as the Jets dominated New England, 34-10. The Jets defense also turned in its finest display to date, intercepting three Jim Plunkett passes and holding the Pats to 194 yards. Joe Namath connected in 12 of 24 for 203 yards.

WASHINGTON 35, NEW YORK 17 — At Shea Stadium, SRO attendance 63,962 (Shea Stadium record), cool and overcast. The Redskins used big plays and Jet mistakes to snap the Jets three-game winning streak, 35-17. Joe Namath suffered three interceptions and Bill Kilmer connected on TD passes of 70 yards (to Charley Taylor) and 89 yards (to Larry Brown) as the 'Skins moved out to a 28-10 lead in the third quarter. A bright spot for the Jets was the defensive job done on Larry Brown, who was held to his season low yardage, 48 on 16 tries.

NEW YORK 41, BUFFALO 3 — At Shea Stadium, SRO attendance, 62,853, cloudy and cool. The Jets put everything together to post their second largest margin of victory ever, 41-3, against the Bills at Shea. The defense limited Buffalo to only 210 yards and intercepted 3 passes. The opportunist Jets moved for 17 of their points off Bill turnovers and the front four dumped Dennis Shaw and Mike Taliaferro 7 times. Emerson Boozer was the offensive gun, scoring his 12th and 13th TDs of the season.

MIAMI 28, NEW YORK 24 — At The Orange Bowl, SRO attendance, 80,010, overcast and warm. Miami wrapped up the Eastern Division crown with a 28-24 victory when Mercury Morris scampered 14 yards in the fourth quarter. Morris' TD spoiled what was probably the Jets best overall game of the year. The Green led 17-14 at the half and the lead changed hands three times in the second half before Miami claimed the victory. It was a physical struggle which saw injuries to Emerson Boozer, Gus Hollomon, John Elliott, Chris Farasopoulos and Steve Tannen.

DETROIT 37, NEW YORK 20 — At Tiger Stadium, SRO attendance, 54,418, cold and windy. A patched up Jets defense, depleted with injuries to four starters (Tannen, Elliott, Farasopoulos, Hollomon) could not contain Albie Taylor and Greg Landry as the Lions won the annual Thanksgiving battle, 37-20. The Jets fought back to tie the game at 20-20 after three quarters, but then Landry took charge and led the Lions to 17 fourth-quarter points. Emerson Boozer and Clifford McClain both topped 100 yards on the day, but 6 penalties thwarted the Jets efforts.

NEW YORK 18, NEW ORLEANS 17 — At Shea Stadium, SRO attendance, 62,596, cool and clear. Bobby Howfield's 6th field goal, with no time remaining, lifted the Jets over the stubborn Saints, 18-17. The 42-yard boot was his longest of the year and pulled out a game in which the potent Jets offense could not get going. Joe Namath was 21 of 40 for 259 yards, but the offense could get no closer than the 16 yard line and was forced to call upon Howfield. Howfield kicked FGs of 23, 33 and 42 yards in the final quarter after Archie Manning had put the Saints up with an 8-yard pass to Bill Butler. John Riggins suffered a knee injury and saw his last action of the year.

OAKLAND 24, NEW YORK 16 — At Oakland-Alameda County Stadium, SRO attendance, 54,843, cold. Despite a heroic effort by Joe Namath the Jets could not bring off a victory and were eliminated from playoff contention. Namath passed for his second 400-yard game of the year, hitting on 25 of 46 for 403 yards, but he was forced to work without the services of John Riggins, leaving him without a strong enough running attack. Despite the fact that Oakland played him only for the pass, he was able to keep the Jets in the game until midway through the fourth quarter when Ray Chester scored from 68 yards out on a broken coverage. Twice New York was turned back at the goal line.

CLEVELAND 26, NEW YORK 10 — At Shea Stadium, SRO attendance, 62,614 (45,084 turnstile count), clear and bitter cold, windy. In a game played with a chill factor of minus 13 degrees, the Jets were chilled as well, closing out the campaign with a 26-10 loss to Cleveland. Joe Namath did not play due to ankle injuries suffered in Oakland and Bob Davis was unable to warm up the Jets at all. Emerson Boozer ran for 106 yards and the Jets only touchdown. Mike Phipps tossed two second-half touchdowns to Frank Pitts as the playoff-bound Browns controlled the game, scoring three of the last four times they had the ball.

SUPER BOWL III

Defying the oddsmakers (17½ point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph. A crowd of 75,377 witnessed the spectacle in Miami's Orange Bowl.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (4 yards), and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries. The blocking and pass protection offered by the Jets line was superb.

But the defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two, Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The one touchdown represented the lowest point output by the powerful Colts in 35 games. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and thus made him the first man ever to coach World Champions in both the AFL and NFL.

1968 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP

The New York Jets climaxed their finest season in history (11-3) by scoring a 27-23 victory over Oakland in the ninth annual American Football League championship game. A championship game record crowd of 62,627 sat in on the chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes (2 to Don Maynard, 1 to Pete Lammons). In addition, Jim Turner, the league's leading scorer, booted two field goals.

Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack and Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line.

Oakland, bidding for its second straight crown, was led by the passing arm of Daryle Lamonica, who passed for 401 yards. Their running attack was blunted by the Jets league leading defense which held Hewitt Dixon & Co. to 44 yards. The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the first coach to win titles in both the NFL and AFL.

1969 AFL PLAYOFF

For the second year in a row the Jets entered the American Football League playoffs as champions of the Eastern Division. Under the playoff scheme devised for 1969 the Big Green had to meet the second-place team in the Western Division in order to advance to the championship game. Thus, on December 20 the Jets entertained Kansas City at Shea Stadium in the first step toward another Super Bowl.

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal to go on the one yardline, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jet 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only touchdown of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets series, but a fourth-down incomplection and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the World Championship.

Sebo Resigns – Steve Sebo quits job as General Manager to become Athletic Director at Virginia

New Coach – Clyde (Bulldog) Turner named by Harry Wismer to succeed Sammy Baugh.

Training Camp – Titans move to Stroudsburg State College for training camp

Coaching Conflict – Harry Wismer agrees to pay off Baugh's contract and keep Turner as the coach

New QB – Wismer signs Lee Grosscup just before opening game. He directed a 27-17 victory over Oakland (Sept. 9)

Financial Trouble – Wismer unable to meet his payroll and the AFL assumed the costs of running the club until the end of the season (Nov. 8)

Attendance – Team draws only 36,161 for 7 home games, finished last at 5-9

New Ownership — A five-man syndicate composed of David A. (Sonny) Werblin, Townsend B. Martin, Leon Hess, Donald C. Lillis and Philip H. Iselin purchased the New York franchise for $1-million (Mar. 28)

Ewbank Chosen & Titans to Jets — Weeb Ewbank, who had been released by Baltimore, was named head coach of the team. On the same day the new owners changed the name from Titans to Jets (April 15)

Assistant Coaches — Ewbank designated Clive Rush, Walt Michaels, J. D. Donaldson and Chuck Knox as his assistant coaches. George Sauer, Sr. retained as head talent scout

Training Camp — Jets move to Peekskill, N.Y. for their first training camp

QB Troubles — Still needing a quarterback and the opening day less than a week away, Ewbank picked up Dick Wood as a free agent

Opening Game — Boston upended Jets, 38-14, in the opener at Boston College (Sept. 8)

First Victory — Jets won first game under new ownership as they defeated Houston, 24-17, at the Polo Grounds in the home opener. Marshall Starks set AFL record with 97-yard TD return of a missed field goal (Sept. 22)

Cancelled Games — AFL calls off games on day of national mourning for President John F. Kennedy (Nov. 24)

Snell Drafted — The Jets made Matt Snell, RB, Ohio State, their number one draft choice. Snell also drafted by the Giants. Snell became the first number one to sign with the N.Y. team. Also signing were Dave Herman and Mike Taliaferro, both drafted by Jets and Giants, and high draft choices Gerry Philbin and Ralph Baker

Shutout — Jets record only shutout in their history, a 17-0 blanking of Kansas City at the Polo Grounds (Dec. 1)

The Season — The Jets finished last (5-8-1) but they were successful at the boxoffice, drawing 103,550 for 7 games

1964

Trade — Jets and Denver complete historic 9-player deal. Jets sent Dick Guesman, Ed Cooke, Charlie Janerette, Jim Price and Sid Fournet to Denver for Gene Prebola, Wahoo McDaniel, Gordy Holz and Bob Zeman (January)

TV Pact — AFL and NBC announced a 5-year television contract calling for $36,000,000 starting with the 1965 season (Jan. 29)

New Home — Jets move into Shea Stadium, beating Denver 30-6, before an AFL record crowd of 45,665. Jets' Gene Heeter scored the first Shea TD. (Sept. 12)

Snell Record — Matt Snell rushes for 180 yards as Jets topple Houston at Shea (Oct. 17)

Record Crowd — 60,300 sat in at Shea saw Buffalo stop the Jets, 20-7 (Nov. 8)

Trade Rights — Jets trade rights to Jerry Rhome to Houston in return for a number one draft choice

Namath Drafted — Using their pick gained from Houston, the Jets drafted Alabama QB Joe Namath

Snell Honored — Matt Snell was named the AFL's Rookie of the Year. Snell gained 948 yards on 215 carries and caught 56 passes (Dec. 17)

1965

Namath Signs — The day after the Orange Bowl game, Joe Namath signed a Jets contract reported to be worth $427,000 (Jan. 2)

SHEA STADIUM

HOME OF THE JETS

One of the premier showcases of the National Football League, William A. Shea Stadium is the home of the New York Jets. The multi-colored tiers of seats have housed Jets fans since the club moved from the old Polo Grounds for the 1964 season.

The stadium is at the center of a vast transportation network, which enables fans to arrive by land, sea or air with nearly equal ease. Vehicular traffic utilizes a $111 million complex of parkways, while crowds may also use the I.R.T. Flushing line subway which runs directly to the Willets Point station, only a few steps from Shea. The Long Island Railroad station is within easy walking distance as is the enlarged Flushing Bay Marina. Both Kennedy International and LaGuardia airports are minutes away by taxi.

There are 60,000 seats for Jet football games and all are totally unobstructed by columns or posts. Every seat has a clear view of the field. An ingenious system of seat rotation along railroad tracks allows 10,000 permanent seats to be moved electrically to positions along the sidelines. Over 19,000 seats are on the ground level; 14,000 are on the second tier, while 20,000 more are in the upper deck. Temporary seats, accommodating 5,000 fans are installed in both end zones of the stadium.

Shea has one of the nation's most modern lighting techniques, with lights running in continuous strips around the cantilevered roof, eliminating all towers except for two banks beyond the endzone.

From 1964 through 1969 the Jets established AFL attendance records at Shea. Last year the Jets established a club record with an attendance of 441,581, an average of 63,083 a game. The Jets also hold the record for the largest single game AFL attendance — 63,865 — which jammed the stadium to watch New York play Oakland on Nov. 30, 1969. The largest crowd ever to see an event at Shea was the 63,962 which jammed in to see the Jets and Redskins on Nov. 5, 1972.
